Perfect Offering

Jesus speaks through the prophet Isaiah in today's First Reading.

He tells us of the mission given to Him by the Father from the womb: "You are My servant," He said to Me."

Servant and Son, our Lord was sent to lead a new exodus—to raise up the exiled tribes of Israel, to gather and restore them to God. More than that, He was to be a light to the nations, that God's salvation may reach to the ends of the earth (see Acts 13:46-47).

Before the first exodus, a lamb was offered in sacrifice and its blood painted on the Israelites' door posts. The blood of the lamb identified their homes and the Lord "passed over" these in executing judgment on the Egyptians (see Exodus 12:1-23, 27).

In the new exodus, Jesus is the "Lamb of God," as John beholds Him in the Gospel today (see 1 Corinthians 5:7; 1 Peter 1:18-19). Our Lord sings of this in today's Psalm. He has come, He says, to offer His body to do the will of God (see Hebrews 10:3-13).

The sacrifices, oblations, holocausts, and sin-offerings given after the first exodus had no power to take away sins (see Hebrews 10:4). They were meant not to save but to teach (see Galatians 3:24). In offering these sacrifices, the people were to learn self-sacrifice—that they were made for worship, to offer themselves freely to God and to delight in His will.

Only Jesus could make that perfect offering of Himself. And through His sacrifice, He has given us ears open to obedience and made it possible for us to hear the Father's call to holiness, as Paul says in today's Epistle.

He has made us children of God, baptized in the blood of the Lamb (see Revelation 7:14). And we are to join our sacrifice to His, to offer our bodies—our lives—as living sacrifices in the spiritual worship of the Mass (see Romans 12:1).

Jesus the Lamb of God

In today's gospel John exclaims that Jesus is the 'lamb of God.' For us this may seem an odd expression and we may have images of cute and cuddly lambs. Often we portray Jesus in this light—warm, gentle, caring, compassionate, mild and peaceful—just like a lamb. Yes, this is true.

However, the title 'Lamb of God' has a much darker and richer meaning. For John's Jewish audience, lambs were certainly not cute pets, they were meant for sacrifice, sacrifice offered in the temple. A lamb, especially a first born, was often kept pure and spotless so that it could become the perfect passover sacrifice in the temple. Through its sacrifice the sins of the people were taken away.

Thus, in calling Jesus the 'Lamb of God', John is directly connecting Jesus' life with his ultimate purpose of dying as a sacrificial victim for and on behalf of us in order to take away our sins. Unlike the passover lambs, Jesus' sacrifice becomes the final and complete sacrifice after which no further sacrifice is needed. He is the perfect and spotless lamb who dies for our sake.

What might this mean for us. As members of his body we too are called, like Jesus, to offer our lives in a sacrifice of praise and thanksgiving to our heavenly Father. Through all our works of service, care and outreach to others, through our penance and commitment to God, we offer this same sacrifice. Coming together to celebrate the mass is the ultimate expression of this reality. At mass we participate in a true and real way Jesus' sacrifice on the cross.

Today, let us reflect on how we too, throughout our day, can make our lives a pure sacrifice to the Father, bringing people into a life-giving relationship with Jesus.

Celebrating the Feast of the Santo Niño

This weekend, our parish rejoices with our Filipino community as you honour the Santo Niño, the Child Jesus.

Your devotion teaches us to trust God with the simplicity and confidence of a child.

We thank you for sharing your faith, your culture, and your joy with us. Congratulations on this beautiful feast, and may the Santo Niño bless your families abundantly.

Behold the Lamb of God

(John 1:29-34)

In today's Gospel, John the Baptist points away from himself and towards Jesus, declaring, "Behold the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world." This simple yet powerful witness reminds us that faith begins not with our own efforts, but with recognising who Jesus truly is.

John testifies that Jesus is the one chosen and sent by God, the one upon whom the Spirit rests. As we continue our journey of faith, we are invited to echo John's words in our own lives—by our prayer, our choices, and our love—so that others too may come to recognise Jesus as the Lamb of God and the source of true hope and peace.

Permanent Diaconate Ordination

Jokes Corner

This week I heard someone say, "Father, why does John the Baptist call Jesus the Lamb of God? Why not the Lion of God?" I said, "Because if John said, 'Behold the Lion of God,' everyone would have run away instead of coming closer!" Jesus comes not to frighten us, but to draw us in—with gentleness, humility, and love.

In our parish we speak many languages—English, Vietnamese, Filipino, Samoan, Italian, and more.

Sometimes people ask me, "Father, what is the most important language in the Church?"

I think the answer is simple: the language of pointing.

John the Baptist didn't need many words—he just pointed and said, "There is the Lamb of God."

And everyone understood him.

News from the Diocese

A vocation view

John the Baptist's whole purpose was revealing Christ to Israel. When God calls you to serve, remember: it's not about your glory but pointing others to Jesus who saves. (Jn 1:29-34)

If you want to talk about your vocation, please contact Fr Duane Fernandez, the diocesan vocations director, vocations@dow.org.au

STOUTHEARTED Men of Sexual Integrity

Stouthearted is a new Jesus-centred men’s program designed to meet a desperate need in men. It’s an 8-week program that draws from well-known experts, shares powerful teachings and models real world conversations.

Stouthearted fosters learning, discussion, prayer, reflection, healing and builds essential practical strategies. In addition to the main sessions, there are short daily reflections that include video input, bible study, and self-reflection.

The Stouthearted program will be running in Wollongong in 2026, each Monday from 2 Feb - 30 Mar. Register now: dow.sh/stouthearted
